Why a retreat?

To make a retreat is not to escape from the real world, but to be in touch with aspects of reality that are often covered over with noise and busyness.

We slow down and open our hearts to the presence and voice of God in our lives that often gets missed by the many distractions that life puts in our path.

Plan your private, self-directed retreat today by contacting Roz at (313) 286-2848 or rsalter@stpaulretreat.org

A retreat can offer a change of:
Place
Pace
Focus

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

MT 6:31

On a private, self-directed retreat, the retreatant plans his or her own time, often including prayer, rest and relaxation. One may choose to read, take a walk on our beautiful grounds, or spend time in our chapel. Retreatants may also meet daily with a Spiritual Director (with advance scheduling) to process their prayer and better discover the movement of God in their life.

Retreatants determine the length of their retreat. Guests are invited to stay overnight or for several days.
